NEW WEBSITE IS A HIT

This is an incredible business building tool

After a couple of unexpected delays, we have fulfilled our promise to you of updating our website, and boy oh boy have our webmasters done a fine job. From those of you that participated in our sneak preview last week we have heard nothing but praise and we are as excited as you with regards to what promises to be an amazing future for all of us.

Make sure that you visit the “earnings calculator” under the opportunity tab. It will guide you through the results you can expect from the energy and activity that you put into your business. Well worth a visit.

Also worth a visit is the Clinical Trials section. We are continuously telling you what an amazing product we have developed and how fortunate you are to have it in your hands, now you can read for yourself exactly what the medical and scientific world is saying about our product.

You now have in your hands an incredible tool with which you can build an American empire, so go build your future!

SHARE YOUR STORY WITH US

An easy way to get FREE products

Do you have a great testimonial about the product that you want to share with the world. If so we want to hear about it. Perhaps you have lost weight, improved your sleep, have more energy, or even improved your health beyond all recognition. Whatever your story we want it.

For each story that we place on the website we will present one FREE bottle of AM or PM to the customer and one to the IBA who submitted the story to us. The free bottle will be shipped with the next order placed. So start writing these stories and stake your claim to fame.

Each story submitted needs to be accompanied by a picture and signed release notice stating that we can publish the story. Good luck and may you all be winners.
